

Errata: Victory for the ACT® Test, 15th Edition

The Cambridge Victory publications involve the collaborative effort of skilled test preparation writers, experienced educators, and trained editors to produce a product that effectively prepares students for test day. We work hard to create accurate, error-free materials, but occasionally we make mistakes. Please see the corrections below and notify your students of these changes when you present this item in class:

526, Victory Teacher's Guide	#61	Correct answer is (C).
690, Victory Teacher's Guide	#20 explanation	The 70-phon loudness level line intersects the 20-hertz frequency at 110 decibels.
49, Essential Skills Teacher's Guide	#125 explanation	This item tests subject-verb agreement. The verb "opens" is singular and doesn't agree with the subject "stores." "Open," (C), corrects this error.
49, Essential Skills Teacher's Guide	#126 explanation	The problem here is that the subject and verb do not agree. The subject "many" is plural and the verb "is" is singular. "Are," (H), is plural and, therefore, matches the subject.
